Arrivals and

If we are always arriving and departing, it is also true that we are eternally anchored. One's destination is never a place but rather a new way of looking at things.

Marian Spirit

A deafening roar resounds in the Knights' bleachers. Students dress up in creative outfits in support of our fellow athletes. Whether it is for football, basketball, volleyball, or other sports, the turnout is always something to remember. "Standing room only" is a way to describe Marian Spirit. We cram into the student section and cheer and chant to show our loyalty as the one and only Marian Knights.

Jenny Porile encourages the crowd to back the Knights!

What Defines Marian Service?

For students, it means taking time out of their busy schedules to give back to the community. Whether it is doing yardwork for the elderly, pouring coffee during Grandparents' Day, coaching a grade school sports team, or assisting the needy at the Homeless Shelter, the Knights find a way to get involved!

Below: Seniors Dana Lind, Colleen Earley, Aleshia Faulstich, along with Mrs. Miller, and Jenny Seng stop for a picture at the annual Grandparents' Day Breakfast. As members of Campus Ministry Leadership team, these ladies, along with around a dozen others, volunteer their time to assist in any way they can throughout this memorable day. Some duties included greeting Grandparents, directing them to the Cafeteria, refilling coffee, food, and other assignments.

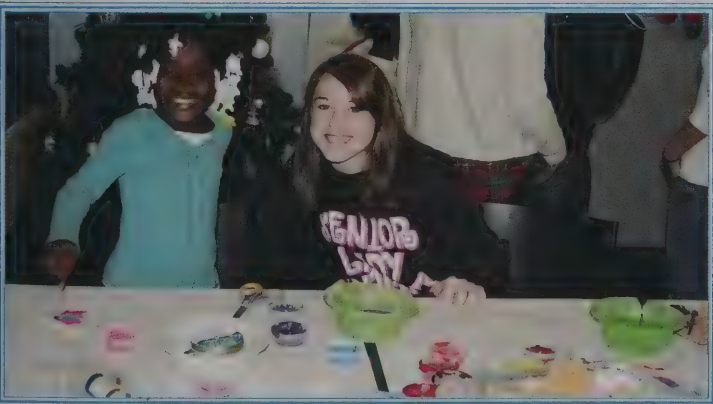

Left: Seniors in Mr. Rethlake's Government class sit around the classroom full of food. His class is always highly motivated to bring in as much food as possible! During the food drive, Mr. Rethlake's class has a friendly competition with Mr. Killilea's class to see who can bring in the most non-perishable food items. It's one thing you can always count on--that those two classrooms will bring in a great number of items to feed the hungry!

Service:

Every year at Marian, the Hockey team sponsors the Toys for Tots toy drive collection during the Christmas Season. Students bring in a toy in exchange for a dress down day and get their hands marked to show they have donated a toy. The amount of toys collected each year greatly benefits the needy children in our local community. This service has been a staple at Marian and continues to thrive. The picture below shows several Hockey players waiting at the north door to collect the unwrapped toys from their fellow Marian students. Even though the students will not personally see where their generous donation will go, we all can rest assured that they will be given to many deserving children.

Another tradition at Marian stems from the wonderful Art Department. Mrs. Gunty organizes many of her students, members of Art Club, and other helpful volunteers for the Homeless Shelter Christmas Party. Students put together ornaments, stockings, cookies, and other holiday crafts with the children who reside at the Center. Each year, students who have never attended boast that, "It was such a gratifying experience. I felt so good to give back and bring cheer to the children who live with so little."

Senior Breakfast

On Friday, May 20th, graduating seniors gathered together for Senior Appreciation Day. The morning started off with a mass in the BCAC, followed by a delicious and tasty breakfast. During the breakfast, the highly anticipated Senior Lance Edition was passed out, and students excitedly looked at their classmates' baby pictures as well as intended college plans. Afterwards, students watched their Senior Class Video, and next students gathered in the main gym to take the Senior Class Picture. The day came to an end with graduation practice and the distribution of graduation caps and gowns.

The Marian Baseball team members are justifiably proud of their regional and semistate victories.

Class of 2011~

One of my closest friends at Marian mockingly said, "Organically emerge your ideas." When she said this, I started to laugh, because, quite frankly, it sounded like nonsense. Yet, as I think of my past four years at Marian, it makes sense. Of all the things I learned from Marian, staying firm in what I believed was definitely the most important. As cliché as it sounds, becoming who you really are comes with following your own ideas not something your best friend thinks. And as my fellow graduates and I venture outside the sheltered Marian bubble, I hope that we all take steps to go after what makes us happiest, not our parents, teachers, or friends.

"One isn't necessarily born with courage, but one is born with potential. Without courage, we cannot practice any other virtue with consistency. We can't be kind, true, merciful, generous, or honest."--Maya Angelou

While I have made many memories at Marian, from the Freshman Biology trip to Brookfield Zoo, or my many trips with my beloved Advanced Research class (you know who you are guys!), I want this yearbook to be a representation of all of you, my fellow Knights. Starting in the summer of 2010, Katie, Mere, Hayden, and I were thinking of themes for this year's Madrigal. "Arrivals and Departures" was something that really struck me. I think that it can speak to the multitudes of the classes; whether you were the wide-eyed freshman, or the seniors who were ready for the next step in their lives, we all arrive from one place and depart to another.

This yearbook signifies the countless hours that Katie and I spent during 2nd hour, coming up with layouts, identifying people, (even you, Ben Gill, with the sunglasses!), and asking around for pictures. When Ms. Conn asked me to be the editor my junior year, I was excited to take on this project. I hope that you will be proud to show this book down the road, when Uggs and skinny jeans are out of style, and your future children will look with admiration as you describe what was so awesome about high school at Marian.

Ms. Conn, Katie, Mere, and Hayden—

You all have helped me in some way this year, and I thank you immensely. Whether it was meeting deadlines, designing killer layouts, hunting down candid, or just trying to figure out how to caption a picture it all made creating this yearbook easier and a lot more fun. Shout out to Emily Madigan and Samuel Leung for also providing us with pictures! And Katie, you really helped get me through the madness and deadlines, and you've proved that even if needed, with your help, I can overcome a pile of jammed pans. Thank you.

Congratulations Class of 2011!

"Life is the most exciting opportunity we have. But we have one shot. You graduate from [high school] once, and that's it. You're going out of that nest. And you have to find that courage that's deep, deep, deep in there. Every step of the way." --Andrew Shue

To the Senior Class of 2011:

It is hard to believe that it has already been four years at Marian. It seems as if it were only yesterday we were walking into the school as nervous and anxious freshmen. I still find it hard to believe that the years flew by so fast. Coming from my small grade school, Queen of Peace, I only knew a handful of students. The prospect of entering high school and meeting hundreds of other students was very frightening. As the years went by, these strangers became my friends and eventually my family. By senior year, I had developed close friendships that I know will last the rest of my life.

During my four years at Marian High School, I cannot even begin to describe everything that I have learned. My teachers and friends have inspired me to seek out my interests, develop my strengths, and achieve my goals. They have motivated and pushed me to full potential, and I greatly thank them for all their work. The memories that will remain with me throughout my life not only include the big Marian events, such as the numerous field trips, football games, and dances, but also the seemingly insignificant moments, like the passing periods, lunchroom discussions, and bus rides. They teach me the importance of friendships and learning, and I know that I can always look back on them to remember the good times.

I am honored to be a member of the Marian High School Class of 2011. Within our class, I have had the opportunity to meet and become friends with interesting, unique, and talented individuals. I do not doubt that we will accomplish great things. Whether we choose to become engineers, doctors, or teachers, we are the future leaders of our nation, and knowing this gives me great hope and comfort for the years to come.

Ms. Conn, this yearbook would not be possible without your help and guidance. You were always there for me whenever I needed help and you have taught me so much in the past year. You always pushed me to work to my full potential to make this book a success. To my fellow editor, Andrea, thank you for all of the work that you put into our yearbook. I knew that I could always count on you to work tirelessly to meet deadlines and add a creative touch to the layouts. Mere and Hayden, thank you for all the work that you did this year. Making this yearbook would not have been possible without your time, effort, and help. I would also like to thank all of the teachers and staff whom I have met in the past four years. You have all made a mark on my education and inspired me to continuously seek knowledge throughout my life. You were always there for help or guidance whenever I needed it, and made even the hardest classes fun and easy to learn. I would also like to thank all of my friends and especially my family. You have been a huge support for me throughout my four years at Marian, especially during my senior year. Words cannot even begin to express how thankful I am for all that you have done and to have all of you in my life. I will forever cherish the memories that we have made.

My fellow classmates, thank you for the past four years. Each one of you has made an impression on my life, and I will never forget the years that we spent together. I hope that you enjoy this yearbook and look to it to remember the memorable experiences that we had together. It is an opportunity that I hope you take to reflect on our accomplishments, friends, and experiences we have had during our time at Marian. I wish you well in all that your futures may hold, and I hope to see all of you in the future.

"Excellence is never an accident; it is always the result of high intention, sincere effort, intelligent direction, skillful execution and the ability to see obstacles as opportunities."

-- Aristotle
